

The Soulsby Foundation for One Health

The Foundation supports research and other charitable activities associated with promoting and advancing the concept of One Health.

The main activity of the Foundation is to provide Travelling Research Fellowships that result from competitive applications and are likely to be up to £12,000 per annum to cover travel and subsistence expenses in carrying out these projects.

Details about the Soulsby Foundation and how to apply are included our webpage.

