

Destroying viruses

Destroying viruses

Spot the cell invaded by the tiny viruses and make the viruses stand out with bright colours to attract the killer T cells. In the background are red blood cells and, in the corner, are little platelets that can help to form a blood clot.

Killer T cells are alerted and swoop into action, to fight back and kill the infected cell.

