The Pathology Portal received the Outstanding Innovation Award at the Healthcare Honours 2023 on Thursday 23 November 2023. This award reflects the Pathology Portal's impact on trainees, practising pathologists, scientists and those in pathology-related roles.

Professor Jo Martin, Pathology Portal Project Lead, with Luke Thrower, Pathology Portal Officer, at the Healthcare Honours Awards in November 2023.

The team would like to extend their appreciation to all those who have been involved in the development and growth of the Pathology Portal.

“

We are absolutely delighted that the Pathology Portal has won this prestigious award.

This is a wonderful recognition of all those who have supported the Portal, helping it go from strength to strength since its launch in August 2022.

In particular, the award is testament to the Royal College of Pathologists and NHS England Technology Enhanced Learning Project team, and the 100+ editors and contributors who develop content and provide thousands of resources.

PROFESSOR JO MARTIN

Project Lead, Pathology Portal

The Pathology Portal is developed and maintained in partnership with NHS England and the NHS Learning Hub platform. It provides access to high-quality resources to advance pathology practice. For questions, suggestions or content contributions, please contact our team at pathologyportal@rcpath.org. We appreciate your ongoing engagement and contributions to the Pathology Portal.
